THE COSTUME HALL OF THE MUNICIPALITY OF SIENA

The Costume Hall can be visited upon reservation, on the following days and times

The Museums of the 17 Contrade and the Costume Hall of the Municipality of Siena are exhibition spaces that preserve unique historical, artistic, and cultural heritage. Inside, visitors can admire the winning Drappelloni, some of which were painted by internationally renowned artists such as Renato Guttuso and Fernando Botero, as well as the Masgalani, prizes awarded to the Contrada whose procession has stood out most for elegance and bearing during the annual historical parades. The collections also include costumes from different centuries, helmets, armour, documents, books, photographs, manuscripts, paintings, Etruscan and Roman artefacts, and ancient sites. Each museum represents a unique reality, with its own distinct identity, telling the story of the evolution over time of each individual district and of the City itself. To visit them is to step into history: here, time seems to have stood still, while remaining vivid and tangible. Adjacent to the museums are the Oratories, while the Municipality preserves the Carroccio, a large four-wheeled ceremonial cart bearing the city's insignia, used in the processions of the two Palio races.
